“I learned that anyone can have leadership qualities and be an entrepreneur. I learned how anyone can step up and become a leader and influence and team. All of the speakers were amazing and taught us how to be a good CEO, worker, person, and so much more.”

“I had a great time working with everyone in my group and working against the others. I loved the break from normal book work to apply myself and be creative.”

“This was the most fun I have had in school in a long time.”

“I learned how to run a business, how to be professional, And how to dress for success.”

“Simply, it was a great experience. As someone who is in the air about what I want to pursue post-education, this insight into business has put something else on the table for me to consider. I may go into business, but I may not; either way, the skills I learned this week will help me regardless.”
